

Eli Ilano

Forest Supervisor, Tahoe National Forest
USDA U.S. Forest Service

Eli Ilano, brings years of natural resource and public land management experience, including working for five years as the Deputy Forest Supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest, working for the Bureau of Land Management, the United States Senate, and in the non-profit sector, in communities around the country, focusing on natural resource issues.

Eli earned a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of California at Santa Cruz in 1995, a Master's Degree in Environmental Policy and Landscape Architecture in 2001, and a Master's Degree in City and Regional Planning in 2001, both from the University of California at Berkeley.

Eli has now been the Forest Supervisor of the Tahoe National Forest for two years and is excited to continue working with the communities and employees in and around the Tahoe National Forest.