Wildfire Awareness Week

Wednesday, May 4, 2016 | Sacramento, CA | Permalink

Johnson Fire from Forest Road #1 U.S. Forest Service InciWeb

This week is Wildfire Awareness Week, as fire season starts to heat up across California. We'll talk with Jim Branham from Sierra Nevada Conservancy and Craig Thomas from Sierra Forest Legacy about what could be different about this fire season, and whether the additional rains and snow might help limit mega fires in 2016.

They'll also talk about the big picture of what needs to happen in California's forests to break the cycle of catastrophic mega fires.
